

SANREMO, 16-17-18/10/2026

The Coppa dei Fiori is split into two: the Media 60 race has been won by Verdone, while the Media 50 race by Catanzaro

SANREMO, 17 October – As the evening lights illuminate the Sanremo seafront, the 40th edition of the Coppa dei Fiori regularity rally also draws to a close at Pian di Nave, marking the final round of the season in the Italian Historic Regularity Rally Championship. After two days of racing against the clock, Fabio and Paolo Verdone took the top step of the podium in the Rally di Regularity 60 class. Driving a Peugeot 309 GTI 16V, they finished the event with a total of 748 penalty points across the more than 350 kilometres of the total race route. Second place went to Marco Leva and Paolo Casaleggio, competing in a Lancia Delta HF Integrale, who finished 2,030 penalty points behind the leading pair. Another Lancia Delta HF Integrale completed the podium in the Media 60 class: the car driven by Angelo Pasino and Patrizia Italiano, who finished third, 2,132 penalty points behind the leading pair..

In the Regularity Rally 50, the victory went to Vittorio Catanzaro and Anna Maria Beneduce, driving a Honda Civic, with a total of 834 points. Just 51 points behind were the runners-up, the Swiss pair Christian and Elena Bonnet, driving an Alfa Romeo Giulietta Ti. The lowest step of the podium went to Giovanni Fante who, alongside Giuntini, scored 164 penalty points in his Alfa Romeo Alfasud Sprint Veloce, but still secured a well-deserved trophy.
